About this document

Thank you for considering Encompass Protection to help meet the life insurance needs of your client. We understand how busy you are, so we've put together this document to assist you in preparing a Statement of Advice (SoA) or Record of Further Advice (RoFA) for your client.

Specifically, this document provides example wording which can be used in an SoA or RoFA to help you describe:

- who we are
- why you've recommended Encompass Protection; and
- the key benefits offered under each Encompass Protection cover type.

We realise that each adviser approaches the development of their SoA or RoFAs differently. While we've tried to accommodate most requirements, we appreciate that there may be some areas where you would like further detail and others where you don't require as much. Should you wish to include additional product details in your SoA or RoFA, we encourage you to refer to the Encompass Protection Product Disclosure Statement and Policy Document (PDS) and the Protect Super Plan Product Disclosure Statement (Super PDS) (as applicable) available at www.encompassprotect.com.au/PDS

Encompass Protection is unable and cannot provide recommendations to you, or on your behalf to your clients. You must make your own professional judgement as to whether the wording examples that follow are appropriate for your client and their SoA or RoFA. We accept no liability for your use of this information.

Before making any decision about Encompass Protection, you and your client should carefully review the Encompass Protection PDS and the Protect Super Plan PDS (as applicable).

Why I recommend Encompass Protection

Life insurance products vary from company to company. It's therefore important to understand how they can be structured to best suit your circumstances and your budget and the different product features, benefits and options that are available.

In making this recommendation, I have evaluated life insurance providers from across Australia and using the latest industry research I have determined that Encompass Protection is the most suitable life insurance product to meet your needs and those of your family.

Choice of cover types and ownership

Encompass Protection allows you to select a combination of cover types and ownership structures to meet your needs [as we established during our discussion(s)/meeting(s) and completion of your Fact Find/Other].

I recommend the below cover types and ownership options:

Delete the cover types that are not recommended.

Type of cover	What you're covered for	Recommended ownership
Life Cover	Life Cover provides a lump sum payment if you die or are diagnosed with a terminal illness.
TPD Cover	Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Cover provides a lump sum payment if you become totally and permanently disabled in accordance with the TPD definition provided under your policy.
Critical Illness Cover	Critical Illness Cover provides a lump sum payment if you suffer a Critical Illness.
Income Protection Cover	Income Protection Cover replaces up to 70% of your income if you're unable to work due to sickness or injury.

Choice of structure

Encompass Protection offers a number of options when it comes to structuring your cover. You can hold all your cover types under one policy and your cover may be stand-alone or attached. You can also link cover held under separate policies via linking or splitting. Please see the Encompass Protection PDS available at www.encompassprotect.com.au/PDS for more information.

If stand-alone cover is recommended:

I recommend that [Life Cover and Critical Illness Cover] are set up as stand-alone cover types. This means each cover type will operate independently of any other cover type you may have. In other words, when a benefit is paid for a stand-alone cover type, it won't reduce the sum insured of any other cover type you hold. The reason(s) for recommending this cover are:

If attached cover is recommended:

I recommend that [Life Cover, Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Cover and Critical Illness Cover] are attached. This means that when a benefit is paid for an attached cover type, the sum insured of the cover types it's attached to will be reduced by the benefit amount paid. This also means that premiums payable on the attached cover types will be reduced accordingly. The reason(s) for recommending this cover are:

If linked cover is recommended:

I recommend that you link your Encompass Protection policy held outside of super with your Encompass Protection policy held inside of super.

This means that when a benefit is paid for a particular cover type, the sum insured of all cover types to which it's linked will be reduced by the amount of the benefit that has been paid. This also means that the premiums payable on the linked cover types will be reduced accordingly. The reason(s) for recommending this cover are:

If split cover is recommended:

I recommend that you split your cover across two separate policies; one held inside of super and the other held outside of super.

Benefits (or the portion of a benefit) which are consistent with the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 will be held under the policy with ownership inside super. The remaining benefits (or the remaining portion of a benefit) will be held under the policy outside super. The reason(s) for recommending this cover are:

Premium structures

Encompass Protection offers a 'variable age-stepped' premium structure.

With variable age-stepped premiums, Encompass Protection re-calculates your premium on each policy anniversary based on the applicable premium rate for your age at that anniversary. This means that variable age-stepped premiums will usually increase each year as you get older, if you increase your sum insured or if your sum insured increases as a result of the Indexation Benefit (if applicable).

Premiums rates are not guaranteed and can change.

Encompass Protection premium discounts

If the healthy life pricing discount applies:

Encompass Protection offers a 7.5% premium discount on Life Cover, TPD Cover and Critical Illness Cover if you meet the following eligibility criteria:

- BMI between 19 and 28.5 inclusive; and
- non-smoker.

As you meet the eligibility criteria for the preferred pricing discount, you'll currently receive a 7.5% premium discount on your policy in the first year and subsequent years. Please note the discount is not guaranteed and may be varied or removed at any time. This discount will be reflected in your final premium amount.

If the multi-cover discount applies:

Encompass Protection offers a 10% premium discount on Life Cover, TPD Cover and Critical Illness Cover when purchased with Income Protection Cover. The discount applies to your final premium after all other discounts and loadings have been applied. If your Income Protection Cover is cancelled, the multi-cover discount will be removed from your Life, TPD and/or Critical Illness Cover.

As you have Income Protection Cover in addition to [Life Cover, TPD Cover and Critical Illness Cover], you're eligible for the multi-cover discount. This discount will be reflected in your final premium amount.

Encompass Protection standard features

In addition to the benefits and features specific to each Encompass Protection cover type, all Encompass Protection policies include the valuable features listed below. Please refer to the Encompass Protection PDS for the full terms and conditions.

Guarantee of upgrade

Any future improvements to benefits provided under an Encompass Protection cover type will be made available to you, provided they don't result in an increase in your premium and don't disadvantage you in any way.

Any improvements won't apply to then current claims, or claims resulting from an illness, injury or disability, which occurred before the improvements came into effect.

Continuity of cover

Encompass Protection guarantees to renew your policy each year until your policy expires or an event occurs that ends your cover, provided you pay your premiums when due. This means your cover won't be cancelled or restricted because of changes to your health.

Worldwide cover

With an Encompass Protection policy, you're fully covered, 24 hours a day, in Australia and overseas.
